

THE TAND CHECKLIST

Lifetime version (TAND-L)

Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (TSC) is associated with a range of neuropsychiatric disorders which we refer to as TAND (TSC-Associated-Neuropsychiatric-Disorders). All people with TSC are at risk of having some of these difficulties. Some people with TSC have very few, while others will have many of them.

Each person with TSC will therefore have their own TAND profile, and this profile may change over time. This checklist was developed to help clinical teams, individuals with TSC and their families

a) screen for TAND at every clinic visit and b) prioritize what to do next.

Instructions for use

The TAND Checklist was designed to be completed by a clinician with relevant knowledge and experience in TSC, in partnership with individuals with TSC or their parents/carers.

The Checklist should take about 10 minutes to complete.

Where individuals answer YES to an item, the clinician should explore the difficulty in sufficient detail to help guide decisions about further evaluation or treatment. All items should be completed.

Let's begin

As you will know, the majority of people with TSC have some difficulty in learning, behaviour, mental health, specific aspects of their development and so on. We are going to use this checklist to help us check for these kinds of difficulties. I am going to ask you a number of questions.

Some may be directly relevant; some might not be relevant at all. Just answer as best as you can.

At the end I will check to see if there are any additional difficulties we didn't talk about.

For parents/carers of individuals with TSC, please start with question 1.

For individuals with TSC who complete this about themselves, please start with question 3.
